

2nd Joint ECTRIMS/MSIF Fellowship Alumni Meeting Agenda

Friday 16 September, 19.00 - 21.00
Crown Plaza Hotel, Docklands East Room, London, UK

- |              |  |  |
|--------------|--|--|
| 19.00 | Welcome address   | Prof. Xavier Montalban,ECTRIMS President & IMSB Chair                         |
| 19.10 | Fellowship presentations  |  |
|              | Moderators: Prof. Xavier Montalban and Dr Dhia Chandraratna   |  |
|              | Mesenchymal stem cells induce the acquisition of neuroprotective and reparative traits in astrocytes  | Androniki Voulgari-Kokota, PhDECTRIMS Postdoctoral Research Fellowship        |
|              | Regional Brain volume Differences in patients with CIS: A voxel- based Morphometry Study  | Rumaiza Hussein Alyafeai, PhDMSIF McDonald Fellowship                         |
|              | A comprehensive approach to meeting the needs and demands of people with multiple sclerosis   | Miguel Angel Robles Sanchez,ECTRIMS MS Nurse Fellowship                       |
|              | Relating functional connectivity to cognition in Multiple Sclerosis: from stationary to time-varying analysis of strategic large scale networks | Alessandro d'Ambrosio, PhDMSIF Du Pré Grant andECTRIMS-MAGNIMS Fellowship |
|              | Fast multiple sclerosis progression in North Africans: both genetics and environment matter   | Youssef Sidhom, MDECTRIMS Clinical Training Fellowship                        |
|              | How do infections activate inflammation in multiple sclerosis?: Role of Toll-like receptor 2  | Jakir Hossain, PhDMSIF McDonald Fellowship                                    |
|              | Imaging signature of multiple sclerosis phenotypes in grey matter   | Arman Eshaghi, MDECTRIMS-MAGNIMS Fellowship andMSIF McDonald fellowship   |
| 20:30 | Networking reception with drinks and canapes  |  |